HIGH SCHOOL NOTES.

The following is a letter written by the Ashland students at the O. A. C. after the first game with Medford to the high school student body. It shows the loyalty of these students and is a sample of the loyalty of all the alumni:

"Corvallis, Ore., Nov. 19, 1915.

"Members of the Student Body, Ashland High School:

"As Alumni members of the Ashland high school we wish to express our heartiest congratulations on the heroic stand made against Medford last Saturday. We hope that the result of the game to be played Thanksgiving day will be even more gratifying. Be assured that we still maintain our old interest in Ashland high school. Though unable to be present at the games, we are boosting for you. In our thoughts we are always 'loyal to you, Ashland high.'"

The letter was signed by Lucille Barber, '14; Margaret Patterson, '14; Marian Hodgson, '14; Otto Fox, '15; Dana S. Frame, '14; Walter S. Carpenter, '14; Robert L. Tweed, '12; Claude Sanders, '11; Edwin Dunn, '13; Alvin Wheeler, '12; Eugene J. Carpenter, '12, and Mark Wright, '11.

The anniversary play was a very good success, financially. About fifty dollars was cleared above the expenses of the production. This money is to be used in buying magazines and books for the high school library.

Verna Bailey of the class of '15 entered high school last week as a post graduate. She was teaching, but her school closed until March, when she will resume her work.

Sam Koehler, clerk in the Hotel Oregon, registered last week in the commercial department.

Alta Farmer was rather "fussed" last Friday over the loss of a letter which she had been proudly showing to some of the students but which she was averse to have read.

A short rally was participated in Wednesday noon by the students.

After using medicines for months without relief, I laid everything else aside and used only Doan's Kidney Pills. They took hold of the trouble at once.
